We return thanks to Mr. Eros, proprietor of the Vienna bakery, for samples of rolls. They were delicious, and supplied daily fresh. Try them.

We notice that the palings around the Methodist Church yard have been repaired which adds much to the neatness and security of the premises.

The daisies are in bloom. This charming and modest little flower peeps coyly from beneath the more vigorous vegetation, reminding one of these tender hearts which must be known to be loved.

GRAND SALE.
At Orangeburg of Carriages, Buggies, Fayette and Spring Wagons, now is the time to get a buggy worth the money. Call and examine the stock. N. H. Fullman, agent, public square.

The silver bill, remonetizing the silver dollars, which passed Congress last week, was sent in due time to the President who returned it with his veto to the Senate. It was again passed over the veto by a vote of 46 to 19.

We notice a park of excellent buggies, of both double and single, on the Court House Square. These buggies were manufactured in Cincinnati Ohio and shipped direct to this point under the care of an agent. Those in want of a servicable, as well as neat buggy, will do well to examine this lot. They are cheap for cash.

We learn that the store of Mr. Thomas Rickenbaker, near Mount Lebanon Church in this Township, was broken into on Wednesday night last and goods to the amount of thirty dollars taken out. Entrance was effected by boring a hole near the bar that fastened the window on front ead. It is thought that sufficient evidence was left to enable Mr. Rickenbaker to trace up the burglars and bring them to justice.

While our esteemed citizen, Dr. Elliott was passing up the street on Thursday morning last, his horse took fright from the line of new buggies near the Court House and began to back, at this moment a wagon coming up rapidly from behind struck his buggy and came near causing a serious accident. Friend came to the aid of the Doctor and relieved him from his perilous position without serious bodily injury. The rockaway was considerably damaged.

We call the attention of the various Democratic clubs in our county to the instructions of the State Democratic Executive committee and to the circular of Gen. J. F. Izlar, chairman Democratic Ex. committee for this county, published in another column of this paper. Prompt and decisive action on the part of our party at the beginning of the campaign will go far to lighten the burden at the end. Special notice is directed to section 6. of Gen. Izlar's circular. Let every man fall in ranks and at once.

"OLD JOHN ROBINSON'S SHOW"
This great exhibition was witnessed in our Town last Thursday. From our observation and dealings with its managers, we can only speak in the highest terms. There were said to be twenty cages of wild animals, monkeys and birds of rare specimens that are no where else to be seen except in the wild jungles of Africa. This was a rare sight to every one. As to the circus performance, Miss Emma Lake and also Minnie Marks acted their parts in such a manner as not to be excelled. The great leaper, Kelley, John Wilson, Barkley, Holland Bros. the Tumblers and Leapers all did remarkably well and last but not least, came the celebrated Lowlow who as a clown, we venture to say, cannot be excelled on the globe.

We would give a fuller description of the many excellent characters of this show but our space will not permit.

THE CIRCUS.
To exhibit here March 6th at 50 cents admission.

Van Amburgh & Co.'s Great Golden Menagerie, Frost's Roman Circus and Royal Coliseum started out to make a tour of the States, and to show the people that one traveling show at least gave them the worth of their money; bulletin boards an hundred feet long and more, and ten or fifteen feet high, with huge, many-colored and pictured posters, set forth the stern fact that what was seen there in paints and inks would be seen in the two tents on the day of exhibition. The two tents were necessarily made larger every season; more seats were added; more men and horses were employed to convey this monster show across the continent. Proprietors of other shows were amazed; they could not understand why Manager Frost with the Van Amburgh Company drew such crowds; they had placed falsehoods upon their posters—but the "Secret of Success"—where was it? The Van Amburgh Company found it the truthful sentences contained on their bulletin boards, and the people found that what was advertised was exhibited or performed. In this manner, by being honest with the people, Van Amburgh & Co.'s Menagerie and Circus came to be the only recognized show in America.

We headed this article "The Circus," and now will confine our words to the ring. The acrobats, gymnasts, athletes, tumblers, jugglers, bare-back riders, trapeze performers, mimics, and others who delight and amuse the vast audiences, are not puny-looking beings with sunken chests, but they are fresh, robust and full of strength, and able to perform every act advertised. The imitator clown is here arrayed in all his glory, and nothing obscene or vulgar passes his lips. The ring horses are not tired, worn-out creatures, made so from overwork, but they are fresh from their stables, lively, and know just what is required of them. What they advertise upon their bulletin boards will certainly be seen in the show. What they ask of you is to study well what each poster says, and you will be all the wiser when you see all you have read about. They have gentlemanly attaches connected with every department, to name to visitors the animals or other things in the tents. To make final, Van Amburgh & Co. are the exhibitors,—the world are the judges.

ORANGEBURG COUNTY, S. C.,
Feb. 19th, 1878.

Editor Orangeburg Times:
I notice in your issue of Feb. 16th, certain resolutions, &c., adopted by a "combination" calling itself "The Farmers' United Association of Orangeburg county," and having read the resolutions, &c., I notice certain propositions to which I cannot agree. One of said resolutions reads as follows:

"Resolved: That all farmers of this county (whether white or black, Democrat or Radical) be requested earnestly to unite with us in this association and work for the common welfare." Of what, or of whom?

Article 1 of the association is as follows:
"That the owners of the soil are the masters of the country."
Are all of the Whigs dead?
I would ask, Mr. Editor, if said association construes the terms "farmers," and "owners of the soil" as synonymous? If the terms are used synonymously, then a person may join said association, if he is only a land owner, and not a farmer, and a farmer (a tiller of the soil) may join, though not a land owner. If all land owners can join, then many persons owning real estate in towns, whose interests are antagonistic to ours may become members of said association, and thereby defeat the object and intention of the association.

Article 2 of said platform is as follows:
"That the government and its officers are created for and should be subservient to the farmer (the land owner or the tiller of the soil)." If the article is intended to convey the idea (as it really does) that the "officers are created" peculiarly for the farmer, we may readily understand the purport of this resolution, "That this association is not organized for a political purpose, unless such action is enforced upon us by others."

Does not our government declare equal rights and privileges to all men? And when the farmers claim to be the masters of the country, do they not challenge and defy opposition.

I would ask the farmers to look at this subject practically. The farmers, of course, exclude their hirelings or laborers, and thereby array this class against them; then come our lawyers, teachers, doctors, merchants, mechanics, bankers and, in short, every class and professions. What will become of the power of the "masters of the country," when they test at the ballot box? The cities, towns and villages, together with the laborers, mechanics and professional men of the country would go on en masse against them.

If I have misinterpreted the proceedings of said association I hope that some member of it will correct me.

Democrats, let us have no split in our ranks, but let us equip ourselves for the coming campaign, and follow up the victories of the past with a complete success next Fall.

Yours, &c., G.

ORANGEBURG COUNTY S. C.
February 12th, 1878.

Editor Orangeburg Times:
Would it not be well for the Democratic party of the county to reorganize, and thereby prepare itself for the coming campaign? The foe with which we have to contend is crafty, therefore we should be the more vigilant. Our victory is not yet complete,—let us not rest until our efforts are crowned with success. The bitter experiences of the past urge on our love for honesty and good government impel us onward; the yet drooping branches of our own beloved Palmetto lead to us imploringly for sympathy and action; and who can disregard its pleadings? Verbum sat sapienti.

Yours respectfully, VORIN.

Astonishing Success.
It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists in the United States.

ADVICE GRATIS.
The Hon. Alexander H. Stevens says:—"The Globe Flower Cough Syrup has proven a most valuable remedy to me."
Gov. James M. Smith, of Georgia, says:—"I shall always use it with perfect confidence, and recommend it to the public as a remedy which will afford that satisfaction experienced by me and mine. It excels everything for coughs, colds and obstinate lung affections."
Ex-Gov. Brown, of Ga., says: "He finds the Globe Flower Cough Syrup a most excellent remedy."

Such endorsement by our great and good men deserves the attention of the afflicted. Those suffering from cough, colds and lung affections should use the Globe Flower Cough Syrup. It will positively cure consumption.
